

Profusely Illustrated by Reproductions of the Best French Pictures.

(Continued.)

Mounted on his milk-white charger, Persia, he slowly rode backward toward before the lines, while the cannon-boats rattled and rattled like hailstones about him, and he looked with an anxious look towards the spot where Davoust was expected to appear with his army. As he rode back for a mile hour he thus rode in front of his army, though they expected every moment to see him appear with a cannon ball, he moved unscathed amid the fire of the enemy. Davoust was seen charging like fire over the plateau of Wagram, and finally appeared in the center of the army of Neusiedel. He came in a moment the plateau was covered with smoke as he opened his batteries, and he was the center of the enemy's fire. A smile lighted up Napoleon's countenance, and the brow that had been so often furrowed by the strain of the two hours during the deadly strife of the 1st of June. He saw that the enemy instantly brought him to his successive losses, and the steady progress of the battle. He saw that the army of Neusiedel, with eight battalions to march straight on the enemy's center, and

CHARGE OF MACDONALD.

MACDONALD'S CHIEF CHARACTERISTICS.

The last great conflict in which he was engaged was the disastrous battle of Leipzig.

Of Macdonald's after-career I have already spoken. He remained firm to Napoleon till his abdication, and then, like all his Generals and Marshals, gave in to his allegiance to the Bourbons.

He gave his adhesion to the Bourbons because it was in the compact with Napoleon, and because under the circumstances he considered it his duty to do so and no other excitement could shake his fidelity. He was a thorough Scotchman in his fixeness of will, in his possession of none of the flexibility of the French character, and but little of its enthusiasm, bold, unwavering, and determined, he

Now is To Coöperate
To secure H
To the Next Enca

ing "Vive l'Empereur" in return, and clasped their old comrades to the

S. Shafer, Co. D, 10th Mo., and Co. F, 5th U. S. He was in the service over four years. He was a member of Maxwell Post, 74th I. O. O. F., and was discharged honorably upon its disbandment. A widow survives him.

WILSON.—At Waterbury, Ct., Charles W. Mason, First Lieutenant, Co. G, 14th Vt., aged 60.

MOORE.—At Abilene, Kan., W. R. Moore, Co. E, 19th Ohio, and Co. A, 51st Ohio, aged 60.

WEEKS.—At Ardmore, I. T., Joseph C. Weeks, Co. E, 63d Ind., and First Sergeant Co. C, 23d U. S. He was Commander of Chickasaw Post, 18, at the time of his death.

CASTREE.—At Zanesville, O., Wm. J. Crabtree, Co. D, 139th Ohio, aged 74. Deceased was a prosperous farmer. His wife leaves a family.

Artillery, but he is now Chief of Artillery to Longstreet's Corps d'Armee. He is would doubtless trench themselves out of the city. It is the best reason for supposing that the fight came off prematurely, and that neither the Congress intended that it should have begun, nor that the staff officers of the staffs intended that it should have begun. The staff officers of the staffs intended that it should have begun. The staff officers of the staffs intended that it should have begun.

and their left appeared to rest upon a high rocky hill.

President McKinley to remove the Commissioner, and appoint someone who will be just and fair. N. J. De Bar is Adjutant.

Farmers Break the Buggy Monopoly

It is claimed that for years buggy manufacturers have kept prices for the farmers high, but recently, through the combined assistance of the farmers of Iowa, Illinois and other States, the Farmers' Union of Chicago have got the price of open buggies down to $10.00 per set. The Farmers' Union, says, "and upwards, and they are shipping them in immense numbers direct to farmers in every State, free, postpaid, to any one who asks for it. The Farmers' Union, for the farmer, but it is severe blow to the carriage manufacturers and dealers."

The National Tribune.

WANTED—A middle aged, light complexioned colored woman, neat and tidy, of good habits to keep house for a good woman. Address, Wagon Master, Ewell, Va.

FISCO CUPBOARD
Best Cough Syrup, "Tastes Good." Use in all cases.
CONSUMPTION

Statistics show the membership

Pensioners!

Rejected claims may be REOPENED. We have had THOUSANDS of such claims allowed.

Act of April 22, 1898, section 11, provides pensions on account of SPANISH WAR.

Consultation free. No fee unless successful.

MILO B. STEVENSON

(Successors of George E. Lemon, deceased pension examiners, as to pensioners.)

Founded by MILO B. STEVENSON

MAIN OFFICE: LEMON BROS.

BRANCHES: 4 Metropolitan salle Bldg., CHICAGO; 404 The Opera House Block, DETROIT.

AN ENDORSEMENT: "For over 32 years clients in every State in the Union, and questioned. The firm is worthy of confidence."

LYNN & CO., 48 Bond St., New York
Mention The National Tribune.

Patents!

PATENTS, TRADE-MARKS,
etc., and all other business before the Patent Office receive our prompt attention.
If you are an INVENTOR, write
call on us.

WILSON & CO., Att'ys,
(and Alva S. Taber, attorney for Capt. Lemon and claims business.)
U. S. Private, 141 Ohio Battery, 1801-4.

BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. on Block, cor. Randolph and L
Arcade, CLEVELAND; Whitney
T.

As this firm has prosecuted claims in behalf the integrity of its members has never surrender upon the ground both of con-science

THE

S,
the
on.
or

n's

1-
n's

of en
nd